ST. ANDREW'S CHAPTER.

Words by Rev. Bro. Edward A. Horton, Grand Chaplain of the Grand Lodge.

Music by Companion Howard M. Dow, Organist of St. Andrew's Chapter.

TEMPLE QUARTETTE.

Hail, brothers, hail this day, Bright with auspicious ray, Cheering our onward way With thoughts of yore. Voices from out the past Round us their accents cast, Faces that long shall last Shine forth once more.	Countless the acts so kind, Priceless the ties that bind, Endless the hopes entwined Through years so long. More light shines o'er the earth, More justice finds full worth, More goodness has its birth In deed and song.

Fair lies the path before,
New joys are yet in store,—
God bless forevermore
Our union here.
Let praise the tale repeat,
Stay, happy hours so fleet,
While with our love we greet
St. Andrew's dear.
